★ A New Friend! ★

★ Out of the glowing pages, a little dinosaur
★ hopped into Iskra's room!

He had big, friendly eyes and a long neck.

Iskra couldn't believe it.

The little dino looked at her, smiled, and wagged his tail.

"Hi there!" said the little dinosaur.

Into a New World!

As Iskra touched the glowing pages,
a magical portal opened!

“Come with me!” said the little dinosaur.

Without a second thought, Iskra took his hand and stepped through the light.

In a blink, her room disappeared...
and a whole new world appeared!

“Wow! This is amazing!” said Iskra.

Footprints in the Jungle!

Iskra took her first steps into the dinosaur world. Suddenly, she stopped.

There were HUGE footprints in the mud!

“Dinosaur tracks can tell us who walked here,” said her little friend.

Iskra placed her tiny foot beside one of them.

THUMP... THUMP...

The leaves began to shake.

“I think someone is coming...” whispered Iskra.

A Triceratops Family!

Iskra and her little dino friend carefully hid behind the rocks.

Near the river, they saw a Triceratops family!

The big one was the mom, and the little one was a baby.

They were drinking water and looked so peaceful.

Iskra watched quietly.

"They're beautiful," she whispered.

Her friend nodded.

"Triceratops are very kind, but we must always keep our distance and be quiet," he said.

"What an amazing sight!" said Iskra.

A Gentle Giant!

Through the trees, a huge dinosaur slowly appeared.
It was a Brachiosaurus!

He was massive, but very gentle.

Iskra looked up in amazement.

“Wow! You’re so big!” she said.

The friendly giant lowered his head and gave a soft, curious look.

The little dinosaur smiled.

“Don’t be afraid,” he said. “He’s a friend!”

“Hello there!” said Iskra, waving happily.

Across the River!

Iskra and her dino friend came to a wide river. They couldn't walk through it, but there were big stones to step on.

"We can do it!" said Iskra.

Step by step, she jumped from one stone to another. Sometimes it was a little scary, but her friend stayed close.

"Brave doesn't mean you're not afraid," he said.

"Brave means you keep going!"

Iskra smiled. She felt so proud of herself.

On the other side, a new adventure was waiting...

"I did it!" said Iskra.

A Spiky Friend!

A little further down the path, they met a Stegosaurus!

He had big, flat plates on his back.

The Stegosaurus was eating leaves from the trees.

“Look at those amazing plates!” said Iskra.

Her little dino friend explained:

“Those plates help him stay safe. Dinosaurs are all different, and each one has something special!”

Iskra smiled. She loved learning new things.

“You’re so cool!” said Iskra.

A New Friend!

The Brachiosaurus looked at Iskra with kind eyes.
She slowly reached out and touched his soft skin.
It felt warm and rough.

"Hi there," said Iskra.

The giant lowered his head, as if to say hello.
Her little dino friend smiled.

"He's a Brachiosaurus. They are very gentle and love plants," he said.

Iskra felt so happy. She realized that even the biggest dinosaurs can be kind.

"Kindness makes the biggest friends!"
said Iskra.

A Hidden Cave!

After crossing the river, Iskra and her dino friend discovered a hidden cave.

Inside, they found amazing paintings on the walls!

The drawings showed different dinosaurs.

“People from long ago painted these to remember them,” her friend explained.

Iskra looked closely at the handprints.

“They were here a long time ago... just like us, they were part of this incredible world!” she said.

The cave made her feel even more curious about dinosaurs and their stories.

“History is everywhere!” said Iskra.

A Gentle Giant!

From behind the bushes, Iskra and her friend watched a Triceratops.

He was huge, but very calm.

He slowly walked to the river to drink water.

"Look at his three horns!" whispered Iskra.

The Triceratops munched on plants, completely peaceful.

Her little dino friend explained:

"Triceratops was a herbivore. He used his horns to protect himself, not to fight."

Iskra felt amazed.

Even the biggest dinosaurs can be gentle.

"Strength can be kind!" said Iskra.

A Special Moment!

While exploring, Iskra and her friend found a nest with dinosaur eggs!

Suddenly, one of the eggs started to crack.

"Look!" whispered Iskra.

A tiny baby Parasaurolophus slowly came out.

It blinked, looked around, and let out a happy chirp!

Its mom watched nearby, making sure everything was safe.

Iskra felt so lucky to witness such a special moment.

"Every creature is important," she said.

"We must always respect and protect their homes."

"What a magical day!" said Iskra.

A Cozy Camp!

As the sun began to set, Iskra and her dino friends made a cozy camp by the river. They lit a small fire and shared stories about their day. "I had the best adventure ever!" said Iskra. The dinosaurs listened, happy and calm. The sky turned into a blanket of stars. "Look," said Iskra, "even though we are different, we are still a team." Her dino friend nodded. Together, they realized that the best adventures are even more special when you share them with kind friends.

"Good friends make every adventure brighter!" said Iskra.

A Beautiful Sunset!

After a day full of adventures, Iskra and her dino friend sat on a big rock to watch the sunset. The sky turned orange, pink, and gold. "Wow... look at that!" said Iskra. "It's beautiful," her dino friend agreed. They were different, but they shared the same world. New places, new friends, and a brighter tomorrow. Iskra realized that adventures aren't just about where you go, but who you share them with.

"A kinder world makes everyone's tomorrow brighter!"
said Iskra.

A New Tomorrow!

The next morning, it was time to say goodbye.

Iskra hugged each of her dino friends.

"Thank you for the most amazing adventure!" she said.

"You taught me to be brave, curious, and kind."

The great Brachiosaurus smiled.

"Remember," he said, "adventures don't end here.

They live in your heart, and you can find new ones every day — even at home."

Iskra waved one last time as her friends disappeared into the valley, ready for their next adventure.

She felt happy, inspired, and a little wiser.

Because now she knew — the world is full of incredible places, and even the smallest explorer can make a big difference.

"Every ending is a new beginning!"
said Iskra.

A Sky Full of Friends!

That night, Iskra and her dino friends lay under the stars. They watched the sky and looked for shapes in the clouds.

"Look! A heart!" said Iskra.

"It's a sign," said her brontosaurus friend, "that kindness is always around us."

"My friends make every adventure more fun," Iskra said.

"No matter how big or small, everyone has a place in our story."

The little triceratops yawned and snuggled closer.

The stars twinkled above them, reminding Iskra that the world is a brighter place when we are kind, curious, and together.

"The same sky, a brighter tomorrow!"
said Iskra.

A New Journey!

With happy hearts, Iskra and her dino friends set off on a brand new journey.

“There are so many places to see, so many things to learn, and so many new friends to meet!” said Iskra.

They walked together, side by side — a little girl, a triceratops, a brontosaurus, and a big dream.

Iskra knew that every step, no matter how small, can make the world a kinder and brighter place.

Because when you explore with an open heart, every day can be an adventure!

“Let’s explore a kinder, brighter world together!” said Iskra.

So Many Places to See!

Iskra and her dino friends climbed to the top of the hill. In front of them was a breathtaking view — waterfalls, forests, rivers and mountains, all waiting to be explored. “Wow!” said Iskra. “The world is so big and beautiful!” “And we can see so many new places,” added her triceratops friend.

“Every journey teaches us something new,” said her brontosaurus. “New places, new ideas, and new friends.”

Iskra realized that every step outside her comfort zone brings new discoveries — and that the most beautiful views come after the biggest adventures.

“Explore more. Be kind.
The world is full of wonderful places!”
said Iskra.

Under the Same Stars!

That night, Iskra and her dino friends made a plan.
for their next adventure.

They looked at a map, shared their biggest dreams, and talked about all the places they still wanted to see.

"Whatever happens," said Iskra, "I'm so happy
I have you. You make every day brighter!"

Her friends smiled.

Because it's not just about the places you go — it's about the friends you share them with.

"Good friends turn ordinary days into extraordinary adventures!"
said Iskra.

Higher Dreams!

The next morning, Iskra and her dino friends reached the top of the mountain just in time for the sunrise.

“Look!” said Iskra. “A whole new day!”

The sky turned orange and gold, and the world below looked even more beautiful than before.

They had seen waterfalls, forests, rivers and so many incredible places. But what made this moment special wasn’t just the view — it was knowing they had each other. Iskra smiled. “No matter where we go, as long as we’re together, every day can be an adventure!”

Her friends nodded, happy and proud. And as the sun rose higher, they made a promise to keep exploring, learning and being kind — wherever their dreams might take them.

“Bigger adventures, kinder hearts,
a brighter tomorrow!”
said Iskra.

IT WAS NEVER JUST ABOUT THE PLACES...
♡

The Most Important Discovery!

At the end of their journey, Iskra and her dino friends sat together and watched the sunset.

"We've seen amazing places," said the triceratops.

"We've learned so many new things," added the brontosaurus.

"We've had so much fun," said Iskra.

But then Iskra smiled and said,

"The best part wasn't just the places we visited...

It was you — my friends.

You make every adventure special!"

Her friends nodded. They realized that no matter where they go, what they see, or what they do — it's always better when they do it together.

"Kind friends make any day an extraordinary adventure!"
said Iskra.

Kind Explorers!

Iskra and her dino friends continued their journey, visiting new places they had always dreamed of. They learned about different animals, cultures, and people. They tried new foods, heard new stories, and saw how amazing and unique our world is. Everywhere they went, they remembered to be kind — to nature, to animals, and to the people they met. They left each place a little brighter than they found it.

“The best adventures,” said Iskra, “are the ones that make the world a happier place!”

Her friends agreed with happy smiles, ready for whatever came next.

“Be kind. Explore more.
Make brighter tomorrows!”
said Iskra.

Different places.
Same friends.
A brighter you.

The Point of the Story

Iskra and her dinosaur friends traveled to amazing places, met new people, and discovered wonderful things.
But the biggest adventure wasn't the mountains, cities or oceans...
It was something much more special.

They learned that no matter where you go,
what you see or what you do,
what truly makes life magical is the friends you share it with.
Because with kindness, curiosity and a brave heart,
every day can be a new adventure
— and every place can feel like home.

“It’s not just about the places you go, but the friends you go with.”
said Iskra.

A Kinder World!

As the sun set on their adventures, Iskra and her dino friends realized something very special.

"We've seen amazing places, learned so many new things, and had the best time together," said Iskra.

The triceratops smiled. "But the greatest adventure of all was not just about where we went..."

The brontosaurus added, "It was about how we treated each other, the kindness we shared, and the little things we did to make our world a brighter place."

Iskra hugged her friends. "Yes! Because when we are kind, curious and brave, we can make every day an adventure — no matter where we are."

"Kindness makes every place more beautiful."
said Iskra.
